

An Exclusive Opportunity for Local Government and Education Professionals

PUBLIC SECTOR CRISIS MANAGEMENT SERIES

Are You Prepared for Physical & Cyber Attacks?

plus

EOC Operations Case Study: A First-Hand Account of Managing a National Crisis

Recounting the 2018 Borderline Nightclub Mass Shooting in Thousand Oaks

Featuring Former
Ventura County
Sheriff Geoff Dean

Borderline Shooting

- First-hand account of a mass shooting
- How it unfolded from start to finish

The Criminalization of Cyber Attacks

- Redefining terms and attitudes
- A look at the players and tactics of cyber assaults

Technology Used During Borderline Crisis

- Organizing and requesting resources
- IT and Communications needs for Crisis Management, Family Assistance

The Cyber EOC

- Incident Response for Cyber Attacks
- Processes, Resources, and Preparedness

Lessons Learned from Borderline

- What went well, and what could have been done better
- First Responders Wellness and tools to Move past

Open Question & Answer Session

Tuesday, October 22, 2019 | 8:00am - 12:30pm

Pacific Palms Resort & Conference Center @ City of Industry, CA

Check-in starts at 8 AM. Don't be late – you won't want to miss Geoff's opening! Continental breakfast and lunch provided.

Learn from real world experiences and tactics used under a national spotlight.

Register Online Today: <http://inteleSYS-event2019.eventbrite.com>

FREE REGISTRATION FOR GOVERNMENT AND EDUCATION PROFESSIONALS

Learn More and Contact Us:

events@it4ps.com or 888.546.8353

